

SDMEA Corporate Membership: Connect with Music Educators

The South Dakota Music Education Association is an engaged and dedicated network of music educators. As the largest organization of our kind in the state, we invite you to partner with us to reach the music education professionals and music students of South Dakota.

Our events reach a wide variety of music educators and students. We serve music professionals through content-specific professional development opportunities. Our events for students reach elementary through high school students who participate in choruses, bands, jazz bands, and orchestras.

We continually work to provide high quality and educational events reaching members and non-members alike in every corner of our state.
