There were 14 members present.

Kim Bruguier (President) brought the meeting to order at 11:12 am.

Kim Bruguier opened the meeting by summarizing the current and new activities and events that are offered by SDMEA. She asked the general membership to speak up about anything.

Beth Neitzert (Orchestra Chair) presented on Middle School All-State Orchestra and the corresponding conference that will take place during the event.

Kim Bogart (Awards Chair) presented on the awards sponsored by SDMEA and encouraged membership to nominate music educators for these awards.

Dave Sanderson (Collegiate Chair) introduced himself to the membership and spoke on what he plans to work on as collegiate chair. He is hoping to get in touch with new music educators in the state for collaboration activities with SDMEA collegiate members.

Kim Bruguier mentioned that we are looking for a Conference Chair to take over for Rogene Brown. The Conference Chair position is a paid position on the board. Bruguier also stated that there will be positions opening on the board and encouraged members to contact her if they are interested.

All contact information for the SDMEA Board of Directors can be found at sdmea.net.

President Bruguier adjourned the meeting at 11:21 AM.
